When the King of kings and the Lord of Lords dies for ordinary sinners, we witness the greatest act of humility the world has ever known.

A godly leader is a humble leader.

A godly leader is a humble leader.

Humility means eagerly receiving the lowly for Christ's sake.

Luke 9:46-48a

“An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest. Jesus, knowing their thoughts, took a little child and had him stand beside him. Then he said to them, “Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.”

Luke 9:48b

“For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest.”

Luke 22:24-28

“A dispute arose among them as to which of them was considered the greatest. Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them called themselves Benefactors. But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.”

Humility is greatness in the kingdom of God

The paradox of the kingdom of God is that its great ones become servants and its chiefs become the servants of all.

Luke 9:49-50

“Master,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in your name and we tried to stop him, because he is not one of us.”

“Do not stop him,” Jesus said, “for whoever is not against you is for you.”

Luke 9:40

“I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they could not.”

- Humility means not seeking vengeance against your enemies.

Luke 9:51-56

“As the time approached for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. And he sent messengers on ahead, who went into a Samaritan village to get things ready for him; but the people there did not welcome him, because he was heading for Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?” But Jesus turned and rebuked them. Then he and his disciples went to another village.”
