Mirror Jesus in Making Time

1

MIRRORJESUS: MAKETIME

Ephesians 5:15-16 (ESV) Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil.

MIRRORJESUS: MAKETIME

Luke 6:13

When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles

Jesus spent most of His ministry making time for just a few choice others; so should we as we follow Him.

LISTENING

Be honest... are you "that person?"

The Bible says: "A fool finds no pleasure in understanding but delights in airing his own opinion." (Proverbs 18:2) AND "He who answers before listening—that is his folly and his shame." (Proverbs 18:13)

FOLLY AND SHAME? That's quite the judgement! But we need it.

LISTENING

It feels good to be listened to, doesn't it? We feel significant We feel loved We have a place to share thoughts and feelings We have the person's undivided attention

(without being interrupted!)

- Listening builds trust.
- Trust is good for relationship—maybe the best, most important thing.
- Then why is it so hard to listen?

We want to be heard—not listen.

1. Don't talk. Listen.

You're listening well when they ASK you what you think.

2. Ask answerable questions.

Proverbs: "A fool finds no pleasure in understanding but delights in airing his own opinion."

Don't ask questions you already have answers to. Those are called loaded questions. "When are you going to stop sleeping with your boyfriend?" "How are you going to read your Bible when you watch so much Netflix?" "So, are you going to tell off you boss and quit your job?"

Instead, ask something like:

"Where do you see God in your relationship with your boyfriend?" "Where do you see God at work? "What areas of your life do you think God is urging you to grow?" "Is there a passage in the Bible that you have read recently where God has shown you something about him or you?"

Do: memorize Proverbs 18:2—"The fool finds no pleasure in understanding but delights in airing his own opinion."
 Don't: be a fool. Take pleasure in understanding you mentoree, disciple, friend.

Ask questions and don't talk—listen!

Everyone is fighting a spiritual battle, which requires a spiritual weapon.

Ephesians 6:10-12

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood... but against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

A weapon only helps us if we know how to use it.

 Read the Bible for yourself, and grow in knowledge of it.
 Ask your mentee what they're reading in the Bible and how God is working through it.
 Discern lies and fight them with truth.
 When you're mentee asks for advice, respond with the question: "What do you think the Bible says about that?"

If you don't know the answer, look it up together. That's ok.

WHAT DOESN'T WORK?

The burden of accountability being on the accountability partner
 Peer accountability
 Cross-gender accountability

WHAT DOES WORK?

1. Be consistent + available 2. Be patient + celebratory 3. Use the question: "What would Jesus want me to keep for the grammar nerds: "To what would you accountable to?" Jesus want me to keep you accountable?" 4. Use the 3 C's if they confess sin 1. Call it sin 2. Call it forgiven 3. Call for a change 5. Remember (and remind) that God is always working on 100 different levels at the same time
